

THE D GREATEST DISCOVERY

The Greatest Discovery

Man, as a creature of God, has the attribute of being an explorer. We go out every day in search of answers to life's questions. Lots of discoveries have been recorded in response to various questions, like how to achieve financial freedom, how to live in total health, how to succeed in life, and so on. But there is one question most people are missing out on today that has limited their discovery. This is the question: WHY WAS I CREATED?

In case you don't know, let me tell you: You were created by God. You are not a product of evolution or a biological accident. God created you in His image and likeness to fulfill a purpose determined by Him (Genesis 1:26-28). The discovery of that purpose is what I call The GREATEST DISCOVERY.

I would like you to know that many people have ignored this important question (perhaps you are a victim). They are on a vain exploration, which has caged them in a life full of dissatisfaction, unhappiness, and hopelessness. God created you for a reason. You are here on earth to live a life of relevance. For I know the plans that I have for you, 'declares the LORD, 'plans for well-being and not for calamity, in order to give you a future and a hope. (Jeremiah 29:11 ISV). The reason you are not happy, satisfied, and fulfilled is because you are not fulfilling the reason for your existence.

God made you especially to serve Him by sincerely following His plan and purpose for your life. Living outside of God's plan and purpose for your life will result in a wasted life. You are important to God. That is why He is giving you this opportunity to discover why He created you.

God holds us accountable for our actions and decisions because He has given us the gift of life and entrusted us with specific obligations. Stewardship, partnership, covenant, impact on others, justice and righteousness, and everlasting significance are among these obligations. As humans, we are obligated to be good stewards of the gifts, talents, resources, and opportunities bestowed upon us by God, such as time, abilities, relationships, and the natural environment. God wants us to use our blessings wisely and for His glory, rather than squandering them for our own gain.

God desires a relationship with us and has made covenants with His people throughout history. By making us answerable, God makes sure that we are actively participating in the relationship and carrying out our obligations under the covenant, which frequently include giving Him praise, following His instructions, and showing love and service to others. God wants us to be a positive influence, expressing His love, grace, and righteousness to others through our choices and actions. Our actions and choices can have a significant impact on other people.

God's accountability is an expression of His righteousness and a means of upholding justice in the world. By holding individuals accountable for their choices and actions, God encourages us to focus on the eternal rather than the temporary and use our purpose and service to bring about lasting impact and contribute to His kingdom. God's accountability is rooted in His love for us and His desire for us to live according to His purpose. It invites us to align our lives with His will, experience the joy of fulfilling our purpose, and participate in His redemptive work in the world.

I would like you to be informed that a day is coming when you will give an account of your life to God. Consequently, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God. (Romans 14:12, ISV). Make the decision today to go back to God and let Him reveal to you why He made you.

To start this discovery journey, you must be born again and receive the Holy Spirit (the Spirit of God) into your life. Take a bold step right now by accepting Jesus into your life. Ask God to forgive you for your past and wash you clean in the blood of Jesus.
