

HE CAME TO GIVE YOU
ABUNDANT LIFE

He Came to Give You Abundant Life

In a world filled with hopelessness, fear, sickness, and poverty, you need access to an abundant life to survive. Jesus said in John 10:10 (ISV<sup>1</sup>), “The thief comes only to steal, slaughter, and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly”.

The thief herein refers to Satan, who specializes in keeping mankind bound in hopelessness, fear, sickness, and poverty. But thanks be to God, who sent Jesus through a virgin birth, died on the cross, and rose again the third day to give mankind access to abundant life.

There is no one who can give abundant life outside of Jesus Christ. To have an abundant life means you are fulfilled and fruitful all-around; it means you prosper in every area of your life (marriage, career, health, ministry, relationships, finances, etc).

Abundant life, as described in the Bible, is a rich, full, and overflowing life filled with blessings, joy, and purpose. Key aspects of an abundant life include spiritual fulfillment, which involves a restored relationship with God through faith in Jesus Christ, resulting in forgiveness, reconciliation, and communion with God. Abundant life also features eternal life, as believers have the assurance of salvation and the hope of everlasting life in the presence of God. Joy and peace which is another aspect, are characterized by deep joy and inner peace that transcend circumstances and result from the Holy Spirit's presence.

Purpose and calling are also essential aspects of an abundant life. Believers will have a positive impact on the world when they use their strengths, talents, and resources to serve God and others. Abundant life also manifests in relationships, which are enriched by meaningful and healthy ties that develop forgiveness, reconciliation, and biblical ideals. Contentment and trust are key parts of living an abundant life, and they are built on a firm belief in God's kindness and faithfulness. While abundant life may not guarantee a life free of difficulties, suffering, or tribulations, it does assure believers of God's presence, provision, and purpose even in the face of adversity.

The abundant life that Jesus gives confers on you absolute peace of mind; it guarantees a vibrant hope for the future; and it exposes you to a blessed life that becomes a blessing to the world. I don't think anything could be better than an abundant kind of life.

Though Jesus came to give abundant life, it is not accessible until one has surrendered his/her life to Him. He will do much more than you could ever ask or think in that area of your life where the devil is stealing and killing your joy if you will hand over your life in entirety to Him.

Are you ready to receive the abundant life right now? Then pray this prayer...

Lord Jesus, come into my life. I believe that you died for my sins and rose on the third day. I accept You today as my Lord and Saviour. Forgive me my sins, and write my name in the book of life. Help me to serve you till the end. Amen

If you pray this prayer, I am happy to let you know that access has been granted to the abundant life that Jesus gives. To continue enjoying and experiencing this abundant life, you need a Bible and consistent fellowship with other Christians in a bible-based church. God bless you
