Freedom from The Terror of Death

One of the things an average human being feared the most is death. Both the rich and the poor are prone to living in the fear of death.

There are many things that aggravate the fear of death. One of such is

The fear of death can be aggravated by various factors, including evil tidings, uncertainty, a sense of loss of control, pain and suffering, separation and loss, regrets and unfulfilled ambitions, existential concerns, and cultural and religious beliefs. Evil tidings include various news reports of crises, terrorism, accidents, and so on. Uncertainty about death and its ramifications can cause anxiety and fear of the unknown. Fear of death can be exacerbated by loss of control, pain and suffering, isolation from loved ones, regrets about past choices, and the realization that time is limited. Existential issues, such as the meaning and purpose of life as well as the essence of existence, might heighten the fear of death and the uncertainty that it entails. Death-related fears can be influenced by cultural and religious beliefs, with certain belief systems involving conceptions of punishment, judgement, retribution, or uncertainty about the afterlife.

The fear of death is a strategy of the devil to get people bound all their lives. Those who are bound by the devil this way have little expectation for the future. But God, in His mercy, had created a way of freedom for as many as would accept Him.

*Therefore, since the children have flesh and blood, he (Jesus) himself also shared the same things, so that by his (Jesus) death he might destroy the one who has the power of death (that is, the devil) and might free those who were slaves all their lives because they were terrified by death. (Heb 2:14-15 ISV emphasis mine)*

Jesus came in the flesh to free those who were slaves to the terror of death. You don't need to live in perpetual fear of death, because death has been swallowed up in victory through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. (1Corinthians 15:54)

Jesus offers freedom from the terror of death through His redemptive work and the hope of eternal life. His resurrection demonstrated His power over death and validated His claims as the Son of God and the Saviour of humanity. This victory ensures that death is not the end, but rather a gateway to eternal life for all who trust in Him. Jesus offers redemption and forgiveness to those who believe in Him, reconciling humanity with God and providing the gift of eternal life.

Jesus' resurrection provides hope in resurrection, as He stated, "I am the resurrection and the life." "Whoever believes in me will live, even if they die" (John 11:25). Believers have the prospect of being raised to new life through trust in Jesus, just as He was raised from the grave. This hope gives Christians the confidence to face bodily death with the promise of a wonderful future with Him.

His presence and comfort provide solace and calm to individuals who are afraid of death. He vows to be with them constantly, giving them strength and the certainty of His unending love and care. Believers have the promise of eternal life in God's kingdom through Jesus, where death, grief, and sorrow will be no more, and they will dwell in God's presence for all eternity.

Jesus frees people from the fear of death by overcoming death, bringing redemption, providing hope, granting His presence, and promising eternal life. Believers in Him may face death with hope, confidence, and the assurance of a glorious future in His presence because of their faith in Him.

Everyone who has surrendered their life to Jesus in totality has taken on a new life that never dies and is not subject to the pain of physical death. You can take on immortality right here on earth if you allow Jesus and His word to dwell in you. Death will no longer be a terror or punishment to you but a passage into eternity.

I come to announce to you that death and its sting will never have power over you from today, if you will accept the person of Jesus Christ. Even when your time is up to leave this world, it will be a peaceful departure into everlasting life with Jesus in heaven.

Are you ready to claim your victory over death?
Pray this prayer now...

Lord Jesus, come into my life. I believe that you died for my sins and rose on the third day. I accept You today as my Lord and Saviour. Forgive me my sins and write my name in the book of life. Help me to serve you till the end. Amen

If you pray this prayer, I am happy to let you know that death has lost its power over you. To continue in a life of victory, you need a Bible and consistent fellowship with other Christians in a bible based church. God bless you.
